We're Hiring: Primary School ESL Teacher ? Marrakech & Benguerir

Looking for your next teaching role in Morocco?

The Groupe Scolaire Jacques Majorelle (MLF network) is looking for a Primary ESL Teacher to join our team starting September 2026. We are looking for an educator who thrives in a multilingual setting and is committed to an international approach to education.

About the School

With nearly 800 students from preschool to middle school across two campuses, our school offers a trilingual environment (French, Arabic, and English) from the very beginning. We focus on student-centered learning and academic excellence within a diverse, intercultural community.

Your Role

You won't be working in isolation; you will be an active member of a collaborative, trilingual teaching team. Your responsibilities will include:

Teaching English to primary or secondary students.

Designing lessons that align with the French curriculum while remaining creative and engaging.

Developing students' fluency in speaking, writing, reading, and listening.

Contributing to school-wide projects and innovative learning initiatives.

Why Join GSJM?

Supportive Environment: Work alongside colleagues from around the world.

Professional Growth: Access to continuous training and development.
